Your digital story and action plan

Record your digital story and action plan below. Reflecting on your journey and committing to an action step will make it much more likely that you'll achieve your goals. Your goals may change, but the thoughts captured today can serve as a starting point.

Where were you before starting this journey?

What mindset will help you most?

What are your aspirations or goals? What impact do you hope to have and why?

What is one action you can take?

What is one important milestone along the way?
